WLS Taekwondo Codes of Conduct for Parents and Carers

As parents/Carers you are expected to:

- Positively reinforce your child and show an interest in their chosen activity.
- Do not place your child under pressure or push them into activities they do not want to do.
- Ensure that all relevant contact details, especially next of kin details, relating to your child are kept up to date with WLS Taekwondo.
- Deliver and collect your child punctually before and after classes
- Ensure your child has clothing and kit appropriate to the classes
- Ensure that proper uniform and protective equipment are worn. Sparring equipment is optional but parents/carers accept the risk of injury to their child participating in sparring without the sparring protection kit. This kit must be purchased through WLS Taekwondo.
- Detail any relevant medical concerns or conditions pertaining to their child on the membership application form. Any changes in the state of the child's health should be reported to WLS Taekwondo staff prior to the activity.
- To inform the instructor prior to the class starting if your child is to be collected early.
- Encourage your child to play by the rules, and teach them that they can only do their best.
- Ensure that your child understands their code of conduct.
- Behave responsibly in the training hall; do not embarrass your child.
- Show appreciation and support to WLS Taekwondo staff.
- Ensure your child is punctual.
- Be realistic and supportive.
- Ensure your child has appropriate fluids for the lesson.
- Accept the clubs (WLS Taekwondo) judgment and do not enter the training area
- Promote your child's participation in playing sport for fun.

As a parents/carer you have the right to:

- Be assured that your child is safeguarded during their participation in sport.
- Be informed of problems or concerns relating to your children.
- Be informed if your child is injured.
- Have your consent sought for issues such as trips or photography.
- Contribute to decisions within the club.
- Have any concerns about any aspect of your child's welfare listened to and responded to.

Any breaches of this code of conduct will be dealt with immediately by a WLS Taekwondo official. Persistent concerns or breaches may result in you being asked not to attend classes if your attendance is considered detrimental to the welfare of young participants.

The ultimate action should a parent/guardian continue to breach the code of behaviour may be the WLS Taekwondo officials regrettably asking your child to leave the class, event or club.
